Most amazing dog bed

Date: November 13, 2008

"The Dog Gone Smart Bed that I bought from Petco is truly amazing. It stays clean so much longer than other beds my dog has used in the past. Every other bed I have bought in the past smells within a few weeks. This bed doesn't have the doggie odor at all. My dog absolutely loves it, and lays in it all the time! It is great that Petco now carries such an exceptional bed! I highly recommend the bed to anyone who has a dog." - Rubina

Your Dog Beds

Date: Sun, 8 Feb 2009

I had to take the time to let you know about the satisfaction being reaped from your dog beds. I have a 6 year old Jack Russell Terrier that has never been happy with any of her dog beds. I have bought beds from LL Bean, Orvis, and Woolrich over the years, and she never seems to spend much time in them. Three weeks ago I gave it one last shot, because Woolrich was offering another brand of dog bed on sale. Well, I bought the fleece top, 36" bed for her at home, and she is super comfortable on the bed. So, I bought another, 24" one for her at work, and spends more time on that bed than ever before. These beds happen to have been made by your company, The Dog Gone Smart Bed Company. Finally a dog bed company that has done something right. I appreciate the easy care, but appreciate much more that my Jack loves your beds. THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU!!!! Stanton W.

Best Dog Gone bed EVER!

Date: March 10, 2009

"This is the best dog bed we've ever purchased for any of our dogs. Easy to keep clean and has not torn yet. Most beds survive maybe a week w/ our dogs. Bit pricy, but totally worth it!!" - Mugsy2775

Awesome bed

Date: March 21, 2009

"Got this bed for our "old lady" dog. Within 5 minutes of putting in on the floor, the younger dog had claimed it for her own. There are 3 other beds in the apt, including a bolster bed, but this is by far the coveted one. Not only does the dog have something to lean up against, she can rest her head on the top in any position and, even better, she has a place for her paws to push against. The removable bottom section also satisfies the older dog's need to "fluff it up". - Rizmiester

Best dog bed

Date: May 13, 2009

We love this bed. I have purchased hundreds of dollars of beds over the last 17 years. This bed has not gotten the doggy smell that most beds get. It washes great and is not too difficult to put back together. None of them have lost their shape and still look great after more than 1 year. I have one in almost all the rooms. I would recommend this product. It may run small but my dog is only 28 lbs. - Kathy "Dog Bed Fanatic"

High Quality Filling

Date: June 26, 2009

I have two Cairn Terriers who share this bed, and both fit on it at the same time. After several weeks, the filling is still fluffy. Love the fact that the cover is washable, though haven't tried that yet. I would recommend this bed. - S. Beach

Mollys personal couch

Date: July 8, 2009

My dog Molly loves sitting on the couch, especially on TOP of the back cushions. After a few weeks of this, the couch started to slouch and I knew I needed to find something equally comfortable for my 25 pound Cocker Spaniel. I decided to get this bed because it was one of the only 100% cotton covered beds out there, and was more of a pillow than a bed. She likes "sinking in" to her bed and it doesn't seem like it will get too hot since the cover is breathable. I did get the large for her since I thought the smaller size would be too small. - Brooke Phelps

Great bed

Date: July 15, 2009

"Not only does my dog (along with all visiting dogs) love this comfy bed, I love how well liquids bead up rather than soaking into this bed" - Person for Jack

Great Purchase

Date: September 21, 2009

"I have owned inside dogs for 30 years and have gone through many beds. I feel a dogs bed should be clean, roomy, comfy and durable. This bed proves to be all of those things. My current dog loves this bed for many reasons but the main one is the fact that he can rest his head on the raised sides as he loves to have his head on a pillow. I will probably order another for a new puppy that is coming into our home." - ChiefsMama

Best dog bed ever. Period.

Date: October 13, 2009

"The first night we had it one of our cats tried to claim it as her own in the urinary sense, the spray didn't soak in at all, rolled into a dimple, and wicked right up with a paper towel. There is absolutely no way to stain this bed, and if you somehow do, it's washable! Super soft, and our dog loves it. We've had it a while now and absolutely no dog smell." - Hairnut

Dog Bed Delivers!

I recommend this product! - Sherry L. Peel

Wonderful Customer Service

Date: Dec 22, 2009

Thank you for taking care of my problem. Unfortunately in Australia these days, there doesn't seem to be much customer service so it was so refreshing to have my problem resolved in a quick & pleasant way. I will definitely recommend your products to all my animal lovers. - Belinda

Great jacket

Date: Dec 23, 2009

Luther Ray is a 67 lb pit mix with little hair on his underside & not too much more on top! He is kept quite warm & enjoys wearing his XXL jacket on the cool San Francisco nights. Keep up the wonderful product & technology - Debbie Wong

Dog Gone Smart Beds

Jan 6, 2010

I just purchased one of your Dog Gone Smart Beds at Petco for my cat. It is going to serve a purpose...but probably not exactly as you'd imagine! I adopted Oscar from Best Friends Animal Society almost two years ago. Oscar was found as a stray that had been shot in the face. He has no bottom jaw, as a result. So, he drools a lot. The fact that your products are extremely resistant to liquids and reduce the spread of bacteria, this is a perfect new bed for Oscar.

Thank you for such wonderful products. It almost seems like the bed was designed with Oscar in mind! - Nicole and Oscar

Dog Beds

Jan 6, 2010

The only dog bed that our cockers have not eaten, gone pee on or torn up...the great bed is filled with an enclosed bladder of polyfill and had a polyfill pillow inside the outer bed shape. It is wonderful and the dogs love to rest their heads on the rounded bolster like edge. I can put the bed frame into the washer and dryer, without removing the enclosed bladder through the zipper, and it comes out wonderful. I put the loose pillow in separately and it also washed very well and dried fast. Clearly your product is preferred to the poly/cedar chip filled bedding.

P.S. I cannot say enough to praise this fabric and style and the convenience of complete wash and dry capability! Why would anyone purchase anything else? - Mari

Best Dog (Cat) Bed Ever

Tue, 19 Jan 2010

I bought my dogs the large size bed for Christmas, and they love it! Check out the photos, Bosco (greyhound) is waiting for Coco; siamese cat to move so he can enjoy it it too. Pixie the whippet also loves to get a turn. I have found this is the best dog (cat) bed ever, it's very easy to clean and I am so happy that accidents run right off. - Helen
